

WORLD RELIGIONS READING

PACKET

___ I can successfully map and spatially recognize the approximate locations of the major world religions

___ I can describe the impact religion has on creating or maintaining political boundaries and states

___ I can use historical and modern maps and other documents, analyze the continuing spread of major world religions and describe encounters between the major world religions.

___ I can explain the way that the world religions or belief systems were challenged and influenced people's perception of the world.

___ I can evaluate the impact of major world religions and their transformations/movements and how they impacted societies and cultures they came in contact with.

___ I can explain and describe the traditions of the major world religions, focusing on the differences between the monotheistic and polytheistic religions.